

"Journey After Stroke" Booklet Survivor Educational Resource

- An unique educational resource specifically developed for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander stroke survivors and their families
- Easy to read, practical information to encourage behaviour change to reduce the risk of stroke
- Developed by the Rural Stroke Outreach Service, The Townsville Hospital, after extensive consultation with Indigenous Liaison Officers and Health workers, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander stroke survivors and their families.
- Please contact Ian Meade (Ian_Meade@health.qld.gov.au or Ph 07 47962370), to receive free copies of the 48 page "Journey After Stroke" booklet