

Indigenous Allied Health Australia 2017 Video Competition Terms and Conditions

1. By entering the competition, the entrant agrees to abide by these terms and conditions.
2. By submitting an entry, the applicant then attests that:
 - all peoples appearing in the video have signed consent forms giving their permission
 - any music and/or images used, including corporate names, logos and brands must have explicit written permission to be used
 - the applicant is submitting original work and all contributing parties are credited
3. Video submissions must be received by 11:59pm (AEST) Sunday 29 October 2017.
4. Competition entry is free.
5. Videos are to be uploaded to YouTube by the due date and are tagged with #IAHA17. The video must reference IAHA or Indigenous Allied Health Australia and your profession. The link is also to be sent to admin@iaha.com.au the closing date.
6. The entrant indemnifies the competition organisers from any loss, injury or damage that may occur in the production or publication of their video.
7. The entrant retains copyright over their video submission, but by entering a video in this competition, the entrant grants permission to the Indigenous Allied health Australia (IAHA) to reproduce the video on any IAHA controlled websites, social media platforms, for mash-up and promotional purposes.
8. Upon receipt of written notice of death, IAHA agrees not to further use the video or stills of that person for any purpose (other than for archival and record keeping purposes).
9. The judging panel decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered.
10. The prize is non-negotiable and non-transferable.
11. The promoter for this competition is IAHA - ABN 42 680 384 985
