

Monday 27th November

8:30am - 4:00pm	Workshop 1: IAHA Cultural Responsiveness Pre-Conference Workshop Room: Preston A	Workshop 2: Digital Mental Health Pre-Conference Workshop presented by eMPHprac (e-Mental Health in Practice Project) Room: Preston C
9:00am - 3:00pm	Pre-Conference Cultural Tour Hosted by Bindi Bindi Dreaming Meet at the Conference Registration Desk at 8.45am
5:30pm - 7:00pm	Welcome Event Welcome to Country – Whudjuk Elders Doolann-Leisha and Walter Eatts Proudly sponsored by The Fred Hollows Foundation

Tuesday 28th November: Conference Day 1

7:45am	Conference Registration Opens
8:30am	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Acknowledgement of Country Introduction and Overview of the day - MC Adele Cox Opening Address and IAHA Patron announcement – Ms Nicole Turner, IAHA Chairperson Keynote Speaker June Oscar AO, Aboriginal Torres Strait Islander Social Justice Commissioner – Culture, Relationships, Health: Human Rights in Practice Keynote Speaker Associate Professor Keawe Kaholokula, Chair of Native Hawaiian Health – Maui Ola: Connecting to Our Indigenous Cultural DNA for Health Promotion
10:30am	Morning Tea
11:00am	Concurrent Sessions
	Care Preston A	Cultures Ballroom	Connection Preston C	Collaboration Swan
11:05am - 11:30am	Building remote community capacity through training in aged care – Jessica Hawkins, Pam McLennan & Natalie Ellis	Moorditj Djena: A Strong Step Forward – Renae Hilder & Susan Jetta	Interdisciplinary paediatric allied health services for urban Indigenous Australian children – Natalie Kneubuhler & Katy Curtain	Rehabilitation for Aboriginal people with communication disorders after stroke – Natalie Ciccone & Chantelle Timmins
11:35am - 12:00pm	Prevalence of diabetes related foot complications in Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Australians – Matthew West & Fiona Hawke	Culture is Healing, Healing is Culture – Rayleen Councillor	Service Learning for Lower Gulf Communities of North West QLD – Catrina Felton-Busch & Sabina Knight	Koorliny Moort (Walking with Families) Ambulatory Care Coordination Program – Debra Rose, Paul Bell & Ciara Peake
12:05pm - 12:30pm	Comprehensive Physiotherapy care to Indigenous People in South East Queensland – Lowana Williams	Northern Territory Aboriginal Health Academy Partnership – Kylie Stothers & Sharon Wallace	An Optometry initiative to increase the eye health workforce – David Aanundsen & Lauren Hutchinson	Integrating care, connection and culture to Aboriginal health and well-being – Tracey Brand
12:30pm	Lunch – proudly sponsored by First Peoples Health Unit, Griffith University Join our sponsors over lunch in Preston A for a presentation on their innovative work in the First Peoples Health Unit.
1:30pm	Workshops
	Care Preston A	Cultures Preston B	Connection Preston C	Yarning Session Swan
	Leadership Lens Check-Up – Duane Vickery EMT Perspectives	Cultural Determinants of Health – Dr Raymond Lovett The Mayi Kuwayu Study Australian National University	A practical guide to the Australian Indigenous HealthInfoNet web resource: sharing evidence to support allied health care for diabetes and diabetic retinopathy – Edith Cowan University, Neil Drew, & Samantha Burrows	Making self-determination real – Ass. Prof Gregory Phillips ABSTARR Consulting
3:00pm	Afternoon Tea
3:30pm - 5:00pm	Mentoring: Our Future in Our Hands – Duane Vickery EMT Perspectives	Panel Discussion Culturally Safe & Responsive Care Panel Members: Ass. Prof. Gregory Phillips, Ass. Prof Keawe, Kaholokula, June Oscar AO	Dying to Talk – helping people to talk about their wishes and preferences for their care at the end of life. – Grace Keyworth & Rebecca Storen Palliative Care Australia	Rural and Remote Disability Workforce – Donna-Maree Towney & Robert Curry IAHA & SARRAH
5:00pm	Close of Day 1
6:30pm	Gala Dinner and Awards proudly sponsored by NATSIHWA Welcome to Country - Whudjuk Elder Nigel Wilkes We are in for a great night at the Gala Dinner and Awards in the Ballroom

Wednesday 29th November: Conference Day 2

8:00am	Conference Registration Opens
8:30am	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Acknowledgement of Country, Introduction and Overview of the day - MC Adele Cox IAHA Student HealthFusion Team Challenge – Final Showdown, proudly sponsored by Flinders University NT Keynote Speaker - Associate Professor Gregory Phillips, CEO ABSTARR Consulting - Accreditation for Addressing Racism
10:30am	Morning Tea
11:00am	Concurrent Sessions
	Care Preston A	Cultures Ballroom	Connection Preston C	Collaboration Swan
11:05am - 11:30am	Opening the Conversation about access to health care for Aboriginal People – Amanda Bailey & Nadia Di Girolamo	Exploring new ways that introduce families to Allied Health Services – Jadnah Davies & Sue Thomas	Connecting Fathers – What we've learned from Strong Fathers Program – Sharon Gough & Jon Blurton	Jiji – Community-initiated interprofessional, student lead program in remote communities – Cheryl Davis & Lorna Rosenwax
11:35am - 12:00pm	'Culture is inclusion': A community-driven approach for the social inclusion of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with disability – Scott Avery	Missing Voices: Aboriginal peoples' stories informing brain injury rehabilitation services – Elizabeth Armstrong & Catelyn Dowell	Implementing the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cancer Framework – Leanne Pilkington, Lauren Kinsella & Meaghan McCambridge	The Quinine Project: Building a locally responsive allied health workforce – Lesa Towers & Michelle Lincoln
12:05pm - 12:30pm	The journey into Occupational Therapy educators delivering culturally safe curriculum – Trevor-Tiritpa Ritchie & Meaghan Rice	An interprofessional approach to care of adults with chronic conditions – Maddison Adams & Ashley Potgieter	'Yamanha – li Balit – Djak: We two go together, Stronger'. Navigating through the Health Independence Program (HIP) with an Aboriginal Lens Model of Care – Charmaine Bell & Kerrie Brown	Bush Medicine Program in the Kimberley Region – Louise McKenna & Joanna Martin KAMS
12:30pm	Lunch – please join our lunch hosts HESTA in Preston A to discuss the important facts about superannuation
1:30pm	Workshops
	Care Preston A	Cultures Ballroom	Connection Preston C	Collaboration Swan
	Keeping a step ahead of ulceration and amputation – Matthew West, Vivienne Chuter & Fiona Hawke	Good Spirit, Good Life: Dementia and the wellbeing of our Elders – Kate Smith & Lianne Gilchrist	Assessment Yarning – Proppa ways for assessing our kids – Tara Lewis IUIH	Closing the Gap: Refresh – Sam Jeffries Australian Government PM&C
3:00pm	Afternoon Tea
3:20pm	Keynote Speaker - Damian Griffis – Chief Executive Officer, First Peoples Disability Network Call to Action; Meeting the needs of Aboriginal people with Disability
3:45pm	Ngungkari's – Aboriginal Traditional Medicine in clinical settings: the Western NSW Local Health District Model
4:15pm	Tackling Indigenous Smoking: A holistic approach to our life journey – Archie Roach
5:15pm	Recommendations and wrap up
5:30pm	Conference Close			