

At Gidgee Healing, we are currently seeking two (2) full time Physiotherapists to join our Allied Health team. This position is based in Mount Isa, QLD and will require some travel to remote communities.

ABOUT GIDGEE HEALING:

Gidgee Healing ('Gidgee') is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Service, with our strategic direction determined by a Board of Directors comprising Aboriginal people from across the region, as well as two skills-based Directors. Gidgee's organisational mission and vision statements demonstrate a commitment to providing holistic and culturally appropriate health services, underpinned by a philosophy of community participation, and a with a strong focus on care coordination.

POSITION SUMMARY:

The Physiotherapist reports to the Allied Health Manager and Allied Health Clinical Lead and is part of the Health Services team.

The Physiotherapist is responsible for working in conjunction with a small multi-disciplinary team in the delivery of culturally appropriate Physiotherapy to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community, including chronic disease self-management, generalist outpatient and rehabilitation.

The role will entail outreach service delivery from clinic-based and community-based settings, both in Mount Isa and outreach to the communities of Mornington Island, Doomadgee, Burketown, Normanton and Karumba.

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

- Between $75,000 to $95,000 dependant on your qualifications and experience
- Salary Sacrificing up to $15,600 per year
- 5 weeks annual leave
- Flights at $1,800.00 per year
- Professional development allowance valued at $5,200 per year
- Retention bonuses:
 - 1st year = $2,500 (after tax)
 - 2nd year - $4,000 (after tax)

THE LIFESTYLE:

The Mount Isa and Lower Gulf region is the gateway to the Outback of Queensland, offers a relaxed and casual lifestyle, with a wealth of camping and exploring, scenic national parks, gorges, as well as top river, lake and open water fishing and recreation.

Gidgee
Healing

Applications are to be received by COB Sunday
3rd November 2019.