

Centre for Rural and Remote Health (CRRH), an organisational unit within James Cook University (JCU) is part of a national network of university departments of rural health with nodes in Mount Isa, Cloncurry, Longreach and Weipa. We now have two exciting opportunities to make a difference:

- Clinical Lead, Physiotherapy (16950)
- Clinical Lead, Occupational Therapy (16951)

Based in Mount Isa you will have the opportunity to work within an innovative inter-professional team consisting of Exercise Physiology, Occupational Therapy, Physiotherapy, Public Health Nutrition, Rehabilitation Assistant and Speech Pathology.

Facilitating service learning programs (Clinical Lead, Occupational Therapy) and student assisted community rehab programs (Clinical Lead, Physiotherapy), these positions provide clinical supervision to undergraduate students, engage with local stakeholders and support inter-professional learning in a remote context. As an AHPRA registered professional with interests in clinical supervision, quality improvement, and a passion for rural and remote health delivery you will be able to utilise and expand upon your professional skills.

To learn how CRRH and JCU can ignite your career go to the "Careers at JCU" website today – the possibilities are endless.

Applications Close: 13 November 2019
