

ST JOHN OF GOD
Midland Public & Private
Hospitals

---

ALLIED HEALTH and NURSING ROLES FOR ABORIGINAL CANDIDATES
September 2015

---

The new 307-bed St John of God Midland Public Hospital opens in November, and will serve a community of approximately 250,000 including over 12,000 Aboriginal residents living throughout Perth's east metropolitan region and adjacent Wheatbelt. Taken together, the region is home to approximately 25% of all Aboriginal people in Perth.

As part of its commitment to increasing Aboriginal workforce representation, St John of God Midland Public Hospital would like to advise that it has the following roles available preferentially to Aboriginal candidates:

- Allied Health Professionals including physios, OT's, Social Workers et.al
- Psychologists and Mental Health Workers
- Aboriginal Health Practitioners
- Enrolled Nurses
- Registered Nurses
- Midwives
- Doctors

Please contact Marilyn Morgan initially on 0413196843 for information.

Or for Information and applications to:

Kyra Bonney | HR Partner - Aboriginal Recruitment

St John of God Midland Public and Private Hospitals

T: 946 248 84 | M:0419 999 017 | F: | E: Kyra.Bonney@sjog.org.au

1 Clayton Street, Midland WA 6056 | PO Box 1254, Midland WA

6936 <http://www.midlandhospitals.org.au/> | http://twitter.com/sjog\_midland | LinkedIn

| <http://facebook.com/sjogmidland>

