

BECOME A HOST EMPLOYER TO SUPPORT LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLE SUCCEED

Are you interested in becoming a health or related industry work placement Host Employer? You will have the opportunity to support Year 11 & 12 Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander students undertaking a school-based traineeship, completing Certificate III in Allied Health Assistance and looking to start a career in health.

As a Host Employer, you will play an integral role in preparing students for the workplace by providing meaningful and industry-relevant learning opportunities. Your contribution will enable an Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander-led health Academy to build work-readiness and employability skills for the next generation. You will also work closely with an Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Group Training organisation, building positive and strength-based partnership.
