

Are you an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander student studying a health degree?

Have you considered a placement on the beautiful Gove Peninsula in the Northern Territory?

Our placement team support nursing and allied health students, from ANY Australian university to have high-quality placements that benefit students, workplaces, clients, and communities.

We offer:

- Cultural education including online learning modules and ongoing face to face learning
- Subsidised, shared, student accommodation for domestic students (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students are prioritised)
- Support and teaching from senior Yolŋu educators and Elders
- Student Networking and Interprofessional Sessions (SNIPS). Community based placement visiting Yirrkala, Gungahara and nearby Homelands
- Access to local support staff, Wi-Fi, computers, meeting rooms and study areas
- Campus site based in the township of Nhulunbuy
- Opportunities to explore beautiful Arnhem Land, and its rich culture

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students can also get placement support from:

- Congress of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nurses and Midwives (CATSINaM)
- Indigenous Allied Health Australia (very active in the NT)

If you think a placement in Nhulunbuy in the NT might be for you, contact:

Chris Hince, Allied Health Course Project Officer

chris.hince@flinders.edu.au

or email us fnt.gove@flinders.edu.au to find out more.

Are you an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander student studying Physiotherapy?

Have you considered a placement on the beautiful Gove Peninsula in the Northern Territory?

Our placement team support nursing and allied health students, from ANY Australian university to have high-quality placements that benefit students, workplaces, clients, and communities.

We offer:

- Cultural education including online learning modules and ongoing face to face learning
- Subsidised, shared, student accommodation for domestic students (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students are prioritised)
- Support and teaching from senior Yolŋu educators and Elders
- Student Networking and Interprofessional Sessions (SNIPS). Community based placement visiting Yirrkala, Gungyangara and nearby Homelands
- Access to local support staff, Wi-Fi, computers, meeting rooms and study areas
- Campus site based in the township of Nhulunbuy
- Opportunities to explore beautiful Arnhem Land, and its rich culture

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students can also get placement support from:

- Congress of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nurses and Midwives (CATSINaM)
- Indigenous Allied Health Australia (very active in the NT)

If you think a placement in Nhulunbuy in the NT might be for you, contact:

Chris Hince, Allied Health Course Project Officer

chris.hince@flinders.edu.au

or email us fnt.gove@flinders.edu.au to find out more.

