

Are you interested in leadership development?

Leading Our Ways

The 'Leading Our Ways' Program is a culturally centred and practical leadership program for the Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait workforce co-designed by our people, for our people.

The program is open to all Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people living in the NT who are supporting the wellbeing of our communities, including in health, social services, mental health, education, training, housing, environment and land conservation.

For more information and to apply, scan the QR code before
3 April 2024