

ABOUT US

Indigenous Allied Health Australia (IAHA) NTWD focuses on five key priorities:

1. Strengthen and engage in advocacy, leadership capability and professional developments to support a strong, culturally-informed Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce and communities;
2. Grow and support the sustainable development of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce;
3. Transform and contribute to the broader health and education system to ensure culturally safe and responsive services are embedded in creating sustainable change led by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples;
4. Lead through culturally informed and strong Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce leadership and;
5. Connect with and promote connectedness among our organisation and our relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, families, communities and cultures.

Our Vision

- All Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in the Northern Territory and future generations are thriving in ongoing connection to self, spirit, and place.

Our Purpose

- IAHA NT Workforce Development supports the empowerment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and communities, to lead transformative change in all systems, by embedding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ways of working and knowing, being and doing.

Thank you IAHA NT WD for continually supporting me and my career journey... I am thankful that IAHA NT WD goes above and beyond to ensure I achieve at my full potential, and I am passionate about giving back to IAHA, community, family, and mob.

Lorraine Randall, NT Academy Graduate,
Speech Pathology Student

CONTACT US

Phone: 0447 313 663

Email: admin@ntwd.com.au

Website: www.iaha.com.au

Social Media Handles:

 /iaha_national

 /iaha_national

 /iaha_national

 /company/iaha-nt-workforce-development

Scan for more information

Connecting education, training and employment across
Northern Australia

www.iaha.com.au

PATHWAYS INTO HEALTH

What does IAHA NTWD do?

IAHA NTWD provides support to individuals and organisations by:

- Connecting through personal, professional and cultural development opportunities
- Growing and implementing career pathways with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and communities
- Strengthening leadership capacity across allied health and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health
- Transforming partnerships with organisations, universities, governments and other related bodies to improve health curricula and address health workforce issues
- Delivering innovative education, training and mentoring programs
- Developing and maintaining strong networks and connections with communities to ensure IAHA NTWD priorities meet their needs and aspirations
- Working closely with the health sector and communities to improve access to health services and employment opportunities
- Working with educators, trainers and employers to eliminate racism and improve cultural safety and responsiveness.

STUDENT/TRAINEE SUPPORT

TRANSITION INTO WORKFORCE

CAREER DEVELOPMENT & SUPPORT

WORKFORCE LEADERSHIP

About IAHA NT Workforce Development

IAHA NT Workforce Development is a Northern Territory, Aboriginal education, training, and employment organisation that aims to improve health and wellbeing outcomes with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, families, and communities across the Territory. IAHA NT Workforce Development provides established programs for individuals and organisations looking at career pathways, employment or building a local workforce in health and related sectors.

IAHA NT Workforce Development recognise and value the centrality of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures, knowledges, and perspectives, which are reflected in our programs and workforce development approaches which value and honour Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ways of knowing, being, and doing. To achieve our vision IAHA NT Workforce Development take a holistic approach to the success and wellbeing of the individual, their family and community, providing culturally informed and responsive supports, to support and empower Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to pursue career pathways. Community and culture are at the centre of everything we do.

IAHA Group Training in the NT

One of the services facilitated by IAHA NT Workforce Development is IAHA Group Training. IAHA Group Training is a Group Training Organisation registered in the Northern Territory, providing employment services and support, to help enable Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander trainees and apprentices to succeed. IAHA NT Workforce Development facilitate culturally informed, holistic, and wraparound support to learners throughout their education and training, addressing needs while building on the strengths and supports, including family and community, of the individual.

IAHA Group Training offers the following services:

- Recruitment and selection, including advertising, aptitude testing, pre-screening, and shortlisting
- All employer obligations, including payroll, workers compensation, PAYE and superannuation
- Management of all off the job and on the job training and assessment
- Holistic, 360 wrap-around support services
- Issues management
- Administration of training contracts
- Employment and workforce planning advice
- Cultural responsiveness support for employers
- Coordination of all state and federal requirements, including training contracts
- Regular site visits (usually monthly) to monitor progress and liaise with trainees, host supervisors and other stakeholders as required
- IAHA Group Training recognises and complies with the National Standards for GTOs