

2026 IAHA ULTIMATE STUDENT LEADERSHIP CHALLENGE (USLC)

ULTIMATE STUDENT LEADERSHIP CHALLENGE

27-29 NOV 2026

BOORLOO (PERTH)

Apply for the IAHA Ultimate Student Leadership Challenge (USLC)!

This three-day cultural and professional leadership program is designed to support students in the development of a wide range of skills and leadership in a health context.

Why You Should Attend:

- Learn and grow with mob who are also studying allied health courses
- Work in a team to create culturally safe and responsive multidisciplinary care plans for mob
- Find ways to bring your cultural and professional knowledges together
- Be supported by cultural, professional and SEWB mentors throughout the event

To be eligible to apply for the USLC you need to be:

- A full student member of IAHA (membership is free)
- Aboriginal and or Torres Strait Islander Person
- Over 18 years of age
- Currently studying an ASQ7 allied health degree OR
- Completed AHA Cert 3 and studying AHA Cert 4 or allied health course
- Actively involved or committed to being involved with IAHA

Note: scholarship includes travel to Boorloo (Perth), accommodation, food and registration for the USLC and IAHA National Conference.

APPLICATIONS OPEN
23RD FEBRUARY - 31ST JULY 2026

